

42 U.S. Code § 247b-22

Microbicide research

(a) In general

The Director of the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention is strongly encouraged to fully implement the Centers' microbicide agenda to support research and development of microbicides for use to prevent the transmission of the human immunodeficiency virus.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login