

42 U.S. Code § 280b-0

Prevention and control activities

- (a) The Secretary, through the Director of the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, shall—
- (1) assist States and political subdivisions of States in activities for the prevention and control of injuries; and
 - (2) encourage regional activities between States designed to reduce injury rates.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login