

42 U.S. Code § 285g-10

Investment in tomorrow's pediatric researchers

In order to ensure the future supply of researchers dedicated to the care and research needs of children, the Director of the Institute, after consultation with the Administrator of the Health Resources and Services Administration, shall support activities to provide for—

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login