

42 U.S. Code § 285t-3

General provisions regarding the Institute

The Secretary, acting through the Director of the National Institutes of Health, shall provide administrative support and support services to the Director of the Institute and shall ensure that such support takes maximum advantage of existing administrative structures at the agencies of the National Institutes of Health.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login