

42 U.S. Code § 300aa-31

Citizen's actions

(a) General rule

Except as provided in subsection (b), any person may commence in a district court of the United States a civil action on such person's own behalf against the Secretary where there is alleged a failure of the Secretary to perform any act or duty under this part.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login