

42 U.S. Code § 1716

---

Presumption of death or detention

---

A determination that an individual is dead or a determination that he has been detained by a hostile force or person may be made on the basis of evidence that he has disappeared under circumstances such as to make such death or detention appear probable.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login