

42 U.S. Code § 1862g

Established Program to Stimulate Competitive Research

(a) The Director shall operate a program to stimulate competitive research (known as the “Established Program to Stimulate Competitive Research”), the purpose of which is to assist those States that—

(1) historically have received relatively little Federal research and development funding; and

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login