

42 U.S. Code § 1862k

Findings; core strategies

(a) Findings

Congress finds the following:

- (1) The United States depends upon its scientific and technological capabilities to preserve the military and economic security of the United States.
- (2) America's leadership in the global marketplace is dependent upon a strong commitment to education, basic research, and development.
- (3) A nation that is not technologically literate cannot compete in the emerging global economy.
- (4) A coordinated commitment to mathematics and science instruction at all levels of education is a necessary component of successful efforts to produce technologically literate citizens.
