

42 U.S. Code § 2278

Statute of limitations

Except for a capital offense, no individual or person shall be prosecuted, tried, or punished for any offense prescribed or defined in sections 2274 to 2276 of this title unless the indictment is found or the information is instituted within ten years next after such offense shall have been committed.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login