

7 U.S. Code § 1736dd

International food security technical assistance

(a) Definition of international food security

In this section, the term “international food security” means access by any person at any time to food and nutrition that is sufficient for a healthy and productive life.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login