
7 U.S. Code § 1736r

Trade negotiations policy

(a) Findings

Congress finds that—

- (1) on a level playing field, United States producers are the most competitive suppliers of agricultural products in the world;
- (2) exports of United States agricultural products accounted for $54,000,000,000 in 1995, contributing a net $24,000,000,000 to the merchandise trade balance of the United States and supporting approximately 1,000,000 jobs;
- (3) increased agricultural exports are critical to the future of the farm, rural, and overall United States economy, but the opportunities for increased agricultural exports are limited by the unfair subsidies of the competitors of the United States, and a variety of tariff and nontariff barriers to highly competitive United States agricultural products;
