

7 U.S. Code § 2355

Effect of defective execution

Any document to be filed in the Plant Variety Protection Office and which is required by any law or regulation to be executed in a specified manner may be provisionally accepted by the Secretary despite a defective execution, provided a properly executed document is submitted within such time as may be prescribed.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login