

7 U.S. Code § 2561

Remedy for infringement of plant variety protection

An owner shall have remedy by civil action for infringement of plant variety protection under section 2541 of this title. If a variety is sold under the name of a variety shown in a certificate, there is a prima facie presumption that it is the same variety.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login