

---

7 U.S. Code § 3293

---

Agricultural fellowship program for middle income countries, emerging democracies, and emerging markets

---

(a) Establishment

The Secretary of Agriculture shall establish a fellowship program for,<sup>[1]</sup> to be known as the “Cochran Fellowship Program”, to provide fellowships to individuals from eligible countries (as determined under subsection (b)) who specialize in agriculture for study—

- (1) in the United States; or
- (2) at a college or university located in an eligible country that the Secretary determines—
  - (A) has sufficient scientific and technical facilities;
  - (B) has established a partnership with at least one college or university in the United States; and
  - (C) has substantial participation by faculty members of the United States college or university in the design of the fellowship curriculum and classroom instruction under the fellowship.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login