
7 U.S. Code § 4901

Congressional findings and declaration of policy

(a) Congress finds that—

- (1) the per capita consumption of watermelons in the United States has declined steadily in recent years;
- (2) watermelons are an important cash crop to many farmers in the United States and are an economical, enjoyable, and healthful food for consumers;
- (3) approximately 2,607,600,000 pounds of watermelons with a farm value of $158,923,000 were produced in 1981 in the United States;
- (4) watermelons move in the channels of interstate commerce, and watermelons that do not move in such channels directly affect interstate commerce;
