

15 U.S. Code § 1093

Registration certificates for marks on principal and supplemental registers to be different

The certificates of registration for marks registered on the supplemental register shall be conspicuously different from certificates issued for marks registered on the principal register.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login