

---

15 U.S. Code § 1022f

---

Advisory board or boards

---

(a) Establishment

An advisory board or boards (including regional advisory boards) may be established as the President deems appropriate, to advise and consult periodically with one or more of the following: The President, the Council of Economic Advisers, and such other departments and agencies of the executive branch of the Federal Government as the President shall determine.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login