

15 U.S. Code § 1201

Study and investigation; research, development and training

(a) The Consumer Product Safety Commission shall conduct a continuing study and investigation of the deaths, injuries, and economic losses resulting from accidental burning of products, fabrics, or related materials.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login