

15 U.S. Code § 317

---

Appropriations and estimates

---

The appropriations for the support of the National Weather Service shall be made with those of the other bureaus of the Department of Commerce, and it shall be the duty of the Secretary of Commerce to prepare future estimates for the National Weather Service which shall be specially developed and extended in the interests of agriculture.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login