

15 U.S. Code § 1661

Catalogs and multiple-page advertisements

For the purposes of this part, a catalog or other multiple-page advertisement shall be considered a single advertisement if it clearly and conspicuously displays a credit terms table on which the information required to be stated under this part is clearly set forth.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login