

15 U.S. Code § 2230

Surplus and excess Federal equipment

The Administrator shall make publicly available, including through the Internet, information on procedures for acquiring surplus and excess equipment or property that may be useful to State and local fire, emergency, and hazardous material handling service providers.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login