

15 U.S. Code § 4601

Findings, purposes, and definitions

(a) Findings

The Congress finds that it is in the national economic and security interests of the United States for the Department of Defense to provide financial assistance to the industry consortium known as Sematech for research and development activities in the field of semiconductor manufacturing technology.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login