

18 U.S. Code § 1363

---

Buildings or property within special maritime and territorial jurisdiction

---

Whoever, within the special maritime and territorial jurisdiction of the United States, willfully and maliciously destroys or injures any structure, conveyance, or other real or personal property, or attempts or conspires to do such an act, shall be fined under this title or imprisoned not more than five years, or both, and if the building be a dwelling, or the life of any person be placed in jeopardy, shall be fined under this title or imprisoned not more than twenty years, or both.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login