

18 U.S. Code § 1655

Assault on commander as piracy

Whoever, being a seaman, lays violent hands upon his commander, to hinder and prevent his fighting in defense of his vessel or the goods intrusted to him, is a pirate, and shall be imprisoned for life.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login