Criminal forfeitures; destruction of weapons

(a) Property Subject to Criminal Forfeiture .—Any person convicted under section 229A(a) shall forfeit to the United States irrespective of any provision of State law—

- (1) any property, real or personal, owned, possessed, or used by a person involved in the offense;
- (2) any property constituting, or derived from, and proceeds the person obtained, directly or indirectly, as the result of such violation; and
- (3) any of the property used in any manner or part, to commit, or to facilitate the commission of, such violation.

The court, in imposing sentence on such person, shall order, in addition to any other sentence imposed pursuant to section 229A(a), that the person forfeit to the United States all property described in this subsection. In lieu of a fine otherwise authorized by section 229A(a), a defendant who derived profits or other proceeds from an offense may be fined not more than twice the gross profits or other proceeds.
