
18 U.S. Code § 3402

Rules of procedure, practice and appeal I Section catchline was not amended to conform to change made in text by .

In all cases of conviction by a United States magistrate judge an appeal of right shall lie from the judgment of the magistrate judge to a judge of the district court of the district in which the offense was committed.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login