

18 U.S. Code § 3600A

Preservation of biological evidence

(a) In General.—

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Government shall preserve biological evidence that was secured in the investigation or prosecution of a Federal offense, if a defendant is sentenced to imprisonment for such offense.

(b) Defined Term.—

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login