

18 U.S. Code § 39

Traffic signal preemption transmitters

(a) Offenses.—

(1) Sale.—

Whoever, in or affecting interstate or foreign commerce, knowingly sells a traffic signal preemption transmitter to a nonqualifying user shall be fined under this title, or imprisoned not more than 1 year, or both.

(2) Use.—

Whoever, in or affecting interstate or foreign commerce, being a nonqualifying user makes unauthorized use of a traffic signal preemption transmitter shall be fined under this title, or imprisoned not more than 6 months, or both.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login