

18 U.S. Code § 4083

---

Penitentiary imprisonment; consent

---

Persons convicted of offenses against the United States or by courts-martial punishable by imprisonment for more than one year may be confined in any United States penitentiary.

A sentence for an offense punishable by imprisonment for one year or less shall not be served in a penitentiary without the consent of the defendant.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login