

21 U.S. Code § 2252

Compliance with international agreements

Nothing in this Act (or an amendment made by this Act) shall be construed in a manner inconsistent with the agreement establishing the World Trade Organization or any other treaty or international agreement to which the United States is a party.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login