

21 U.S. Code § 862b

Sanctioning for testing positive for controlled substances

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, States shall not be prohibited by the Federal Government from testing welfare recipients for use of controlled substances nor from sanctioning welfare recipients who test positive for use of controlled substances.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login