

40 C.F.R. § 60.2899

What is a waste management plan?

A waste management plan is a written plan that identifies both the feasibility and the methods used to reduce or separate certain components of solid waste from the waste stream in order to reduce or eliminate toxic emissions from incinerated waste.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login