

40 C.F.R. § 1033.5

Exemptions and exclusions.

- (a) Subpart G of this part exempts certain locomotives from the standards of this part.
- (b) The definition of “locomotive” in § 1033.901 excludes certain vehicles. In general, the engines used in such excluded equipment are subject to standards under other regulatory parts. For example, see 40 CFR part 1039 for requirements that apply to diesel engines used in equipment excluded from the definition of “locomotive” in § 1033.901. The following locomotives are also excluded from the provisions of this part 1033:
