

40 C.F.R. § 1036.720

Trading.

- (a) Trading is the exchange of emission credits between manufacturers. You may use traded emission credits for averaging, banking, or further trading transactions. Traded emission credits remain subject to the averaging-set restrictions based on the averaging set in which they were generated.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login