

40 C.F.R. § 1051.715

How do I trade emission credits?

- (a) Trading is the exchange of emission credits between manufacturers. You may use traded emission credits for averaging, banking, or further trading transactions. Traded emission credits may be used only within the averaging set in which they were generated.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login