

40 C.F.R. § 160.135

Physical and chemical characterization studies.

- (a) All provisions of the GLP standards shall apply to physical and chemical characterization studies designed to determine stability, solubility, octanol water partition coefficient, volatility, and persistence (such as biodegradation, photodegradation, and chemical degradation studies) of test, control, or reference substances.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login