

40 C.F.R. § 179.97

---

Conferences during hearing.

---

The presiding officer may schedule and hold conferences as needed to monitor the progress of the hearing, narrow and simplify the issues, and consider and rule on motions, requests, or other matters concerning the development of the evidence.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login