

40 C.F.R. § 180.1268

Potassium silicate; exemption from the requirement of a tolerance.

Potassium silicate is exempt from the requirement of a tolerance in or on all food commodities so long as the potassium silicate is not applied at rates exceeding 1% by weight in aqueous solution and when used in accordance with good agricultural practices.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login