

40 C.F.R. § 197.21

---

Who is the reasonably maximally exposed individual?

---

The reasonably maximally exposed individual is a hypothetical person who meets the following criteria:

- (a) Lives in the accessible environment above the highest concentration of radionuclides in the plume of contamination;

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login