

40 C.F.R. § 201.14

Standard for retarders.

Effective January 15, 1984, no carrier subject to this regulation shall operate retarders that exceed an adjusted average maximum A-weighted sound level of 83 dB at any receiving property measurement location, when measured with fast meter response in accordance with Subpart C of this part.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login