

40 C.F.R. § 201.28

Testing by railroad to determine probable compliance with the standard.

- (a) To determine whether it is probably complying with the regulation, and therefore whether it should institute noise abatement, a railroad may take measurements on its own property at locations that:

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login