

40 C.F.R. § 227.15

Factors considered.

The need for dumping will be determined by evaluation of the following factors:

- (a) Degree of treatment useful and feasible for the waste to be dumped, and whether or not the waste material has been or will be treated to this degree before dumping;

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login