

40 C.F.R. § 230.73

Actions affecting the method of dispersion.

The effects of a discharge can be minimized by the manner in which it is dispersed, such as:

- (a) Where environmentally desirable, distributing the dredged material widely in a thin layer at the disposal site to maintain natural substrate contours and elevation;

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login