

Compliance Today – March 2019 Standards of conduct

By Frank Ruelas

Frank Ruelas (Francisco.ruelas@dignityhealth.org) is a Facility Compliance Professional with Dignity Health in Phoenix, AZ.

Given the importance of an organization's standards of conduct (standards, also called the code of conduct) in communicating the organization's commitment to its compliance program, it is critical that a compliance professional have a clear plan in what to share with new employees about the standards of conduct during the new employee orientation (NEO) event. In doing so, the compliance professional can create a level of awareness about the standards of conduct that attendees can take with them after NEO.
