

40 C.F.R. § 414.34

New source performance standards (NSPS).

- (a) Any new source that uses end-of-pipe biological treatment and is subject to this subpart must achieve discharges in accordance with § 414.91 of this part, and also must not exceed the quantity (mass) determined by multiplying the process wastewater flow subject to this subpart times the concentrations in the following table.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login