

40 C.F.R. § 420.101

Specialized definitions.

- (a) The term recirculation means those cold rolling operations which include recirculation of rolling solutions at all mill stands.
- (b) The term combination means those cold rolling operations which include recirculation of rolling solutions at one or more mill stands, and once-through use of rolling solutions at the remaining stand or stands.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login