

CEP Magazine – December 2018

Know what they think about you and your process

---

by Meric Craig Bloch, CCEP-F, CFE, PCI, LPI

Meric Craig Bloch (mbloch@shrinenet.org) is Corporate Director, Investigations for Shriners Hospitals for Children. He has conducted over 400 workplace investigations of fraud and serious workplace misconduct, and is an author and a frequent public speaker on the workplace investigations process.

- <https://twitter.com/fraudinvestig8r>

Most workplace investigators will never be police detectives or work for a company that specializes in investigations. Instead, you most likely work in a corporate or academic setting, and your investigation work will be just one of the company's staff functions. When someone measures the value of your efforts, it will not be as simple as hours billed or revenue generated.

This document is only available to members. Please log in or become a member.

Become a Member Login