

40 C.F.R. § 432.115

New source performance standards (NSPS).

Any source that is a new source subject to this subpart must achieve the following performance standards:

- (a) Facilities that slaughter no more than 100 million pounds per year (in units of LWK) must achieve the following performance standards:

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login