

40 C.F.R. § 440.64

New source performance standards (NSPS).

Except as provided in subpart L of this part any new source subject to this subpart must achieve the following NSPS representing the degree of effluent reduction attainable by the application of the best available demonstrated technology (BADT):

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login