

40 C.F.R. § 610.17

Application format.

- (a) Device manufactures who apply for evaluation of a fuel economy retrofit device should use the standard application format, in order to allow the Administrator to compile relevant data on specific devices and to allow timely response to applications. Application formats are available from and submissions shall be made to:

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login